

From watching to making.

What should a player feel?
What will they do?

Original conceptual artwork · Higgsfield.

Minecraft 40 min · Last of Us 35 min · Board workshop 75 min

What made it yours?

Two students. One specific Minecraft choice each.

Who builds? Who chooses?

Steve's prologue.

One moment. One feeling.

Start: "My name is Steve" · Stop before the Nether · 4-minute cap

Your choice. The film's choice.

Recall

I chose ___ in the game.

Observe

The film chooses ___ for me.

Feel

That makes me feel ___.

Write for 1 minute. Compare in pairs for 2. Then hear the room.

What were they trying to preserve?

Do

Modding. Creating.

Feel

The first night.

Recognize

World and community.

A feeling. A player action.

A REFERENCE YOU CAN'T JUSTIFY

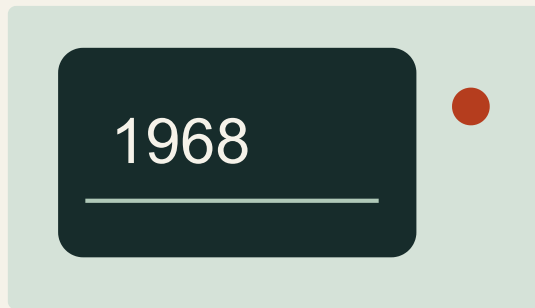

A REFERENCE THAT ANSWERS A QUESTION

Our player feels __ because they __.

Name one reference to add, replace or test in your actual board.

What do we expect next?

TALK SHOW · OBSERVE

STOP HERE

What do you expect next?

DISCUSS · DON'T ASSUME

1968 talk show → title card · Once · 4-minute cap

What made you uneasy?

Dialogue

What did you learn?

Framing

What caught your eye?

Sound

What changed the feeling?

Use a specific observed detail. Game comparisons need specific recall.

Information becomes anticipation.

Why replace an explanation with a dramatic conversation?

01

Recall / observe

02

Interpret

03

Hear intent

04

Make a decision

What should your player notice first?

A REFERENCE YOU CAN'T JUSTIFY

A REFERENCE THAT ANSWERS A QUESTION

What should remain uncertain?

Choose a reference. Explain how it guides attention.

11:30

Back. Ready to build.

Ten minutes. Then your board.

One priority.

01 What is missing?

02 What should you replace?

03 What should you test?

Name the change that matters most.

55

minutes to build.

Your real board. Your hands.

Add. Replace. Test.

Professor circulates. This time belongs to your team.

Check. Revise. Save.

12:30

Partner team or your own.
Four rubric lenses.

12:40

Make the change.
Save the actual file.

Next

Record tonight's one action.

Leave two lines.

01 One term. Where you saw it.

02 One thing still uncertain.

Board: Thu Oct 1 · 5 PM Pacific · Drive

Present: Mon Oct 5 · 5 minutes · Everyone speaks